Recreational Off-Highway Vehicle Statement of Ownership

Texas Department of Motor Vehicles

Title Requirement: Effective September 1, 2009, a new recreational off-highway vehicle may only be transferred on a Manufacturer's Certificate of Origin (MCO).

A Recreational Off-Highway Vehicle (ROV) is:

- a motor vehicle that is equipped with a seat (or seats) for the use of the rider and a passenger (or passengers) depending on the manufacturer's design;
- designed to propel itself with four or more tires in contact with the ground;
- designed by the manufacturer for off-highway use; and
- not designed by the manufacturer primarily for farming or lawn care.

Note:

- An ROV is not designed for highway use and may not be registered, with or without design alterations, for operation on public highways except as provided by Transportation Code 502.140 and Transportation Code 663.037
- The Texas Title will reflect an "Off-Highway Use Only" remark
- Most Utility Type Vehicles, other than an All-Terrain Vehicle, are considered ROVs
